Welcome and Thank You

WELCOME TO THE FIFTH EDITION OF THE CAIRDE ARTS FESTIVAL We have an excellent week in store for you and we hope that you will enjoy the broad spectrum of fun cultural events on offer. We hate to use a cliché, but we feel there really is something for everyone.

This year, The Cairde Arts Festival has come together with the Season of Yeats to offer two very unique cultural events celebrating the legacy of the Yeats family to this area. On Sunday July 1, The Shelly River Boat Race ties in with Jack B Yeats love of model boats – join in the fun and make a model boat for this year’s special event. The Stolen Child on July 7 welcomes everyone to enjoy a site specific outdoor theatre promenade which takes its inspiration from WB Yeats poem of the same title in the beautiful surrounds of Hazelwood. Look out for other Yeats inspired events throughout the summer on seasonofyeats.com.

The Cairde Arts Festival is branching out this year with events taking place in Rosses Point and Strandhill. We are looking forward to building on this growth with the inclusion of additional locations throughout the county in future years.

Cairde continues to be run on a voluntary basis and we’d like to acknowledge those who work on a year round basis to help make it work:

Barra Cassidy, Tony Conway, Zoe Dunne, Dicky Gabel, Pia Luck, Karen Masdsen, Maeve McGowan, Nikky Millar, Gillian Ni Chaiside, Amy O’Hara, Stephanie Pawula, Denise Rushe and everyone at Branching Out, The Nest.

We’d also like to thank all those who volunteer for The Shelly River Boat Race, Park Fest and during the week of the festival – too many to mention here but we couldn’t do it without you. And finally to all the people of Sligo and visitors to the area, thank you for coming along. We look forward to seeing you during the week. Enjoy!

Oh My Darling

Venue Hargadons, O'Connell Street, Sligo, 6pm
Adm Free

With a sweet name and even sweeter sound, Oh My Darling conjures up the right mix of emotion and elation with their unique brand of country. Their prairie roots mixed with bluegrass, Appalachian old time, southern twang, and Franco-folk, makes their style a melting pot of musical languages. Infused with dynamic vocals, brilliant claw-hammer banjo, inspired fiddling, and grooving bass, their music will get your hips swinging, toes tapping, and put your heart right into their hands.

Monday July 2 & Tuesday July 3 Delicious O'Grady

Venue The Factory Performance Space
Lwr Quay Street Sligo, 8pm
Adm €10 / Suitable for 12+

How many potatoes does it take to kill an Irishman? None!

Delicious O'Grady is a tragicomedy set in the time of the Great Irish Famine (though it wasn't that great). Inspired by the satirical works of Flann O'Brien, this circus theatre piece tells the tale of a family and its demise during the great hunger. It is a story of love, loss and potatoes.

Few artists tackle this still painful subject. Colm O'Grady has found a way to depict the story of his ancestors with irreverence, wit and physical skill. He brings to life characters who may have lived through the blight and died of it. O'Grady presents a show that is touching, hilarious and uplifting. Caution: Contains nudity and potatoes.

'Circus, comedy and the Irish Famine, it might sound like a bizarre combination but believe me it really works!'
Roise Goan, Dublin Fringe Festival Director

The Lace

Followed by DJ Ben

Venue McGarrigles, O'Connell Street, Sligo
Adm €10

Any performance by The Lace means its time to party! Playing a cocktail of well known songs from The Democratic Republic of Congo plus their own compositions, their concerts will usually start with some gently swaying traditional Congolese Rumba made popular by legendary bands like Luambo Franco's TPOK Jazz & Orchestre Matimilla, the signature sound of Kinshasa in the late 70s. Once the audience have warmed up, the band will turn the heat up further and after a few gear changes The Lace are in overdrive, playing the latest Kinosis Soukous dance music, with fast, interweaving rhythmic guitars and some sublime solos they will take the audience with them, without fail, for a true Congolese Soukous dance workout.

Followed by Ben Ó Faoláin- Resident DJ and promoter of Galway's weekly one-stop shop for worldwide beats, bass & boogie, Club 0a2. Ben's visit to Sligo will see him focus on the music of the world's hot places – a Tropical dance-floor trip through the irrepressible energies of '50s Columbian big band jazz, heavy Afro-funk 'n' disco, sun-baked batucada, Trinidadian calypso and soca, punchy cumbia, skanking Jamaican ska 'n' rocksteady, swingin' boogaloo and a twist of contemporary Tropical bass styles!

Yungchen Lhamo with Liam Ó'Maonlaí

Cairde is proud to present a rare musical and spiritual treat bringing together two inspirational musicians

Venue The Hawk's Well, Temple Street, Sligo
Adm €20 / €18

After fleeing Tibet on foot in 1989, Yungchen Lhamo has emerged as the leading Tibetan vocalist on the world stage. Since the release of her award-winning first album Tibetan Prayer, her music has met with critical praise worldwide, alternately described as “beautifully evocative,” “mesmerizing,” “spine-tingling,” and “transcendent.” From the quays of Sydney, Australia to the spotlight of Carnegie Hall, her a cappella performances have enchanted audiences in more than 70 countries. Her songs take listeners on an emotive journey across plateaus and soaring over vistas, with a charge and a charisma no doubt informed by her remarkable life story.

Liam Ó'Maonlaí needs little introduction. Renowned for the formation of one of Ireland's most successful bands, The Hot House flowers back in 1985; Liam is a multi-instrumentalist who has gone on to perform solo and in a wide variety of musical collaborations. From travelling to the renowned desert festival in Mali with Uilleann Piper Paddy Keenan to performing with Toumani Diabete, Donal Dineen, Ronan O'Snodaigh, and many more; Liam believes in the incredible power which music has to connect people.

Madu

Followed by DJ Barra

Venue McGarrigles, O'Connell Street, Sligo
Adm €10

This key Dublin-based band fronted by Irish/Malaysian brother and sister team – dub and beats controller Salim and vocalist Aminah – play an infectious combination of sounds which steer away from typical dub soul or reggae sounds to create a psychedelic roots music imbued with mystery and nostalgia. Their music is a combination of influences driven by bass heavy rhythms, vibrant melody and conscious lyrics. The horn section provided by Bob and Zoltan crown the sound with lush harmonies and plenty of energetic solos.

Songs written individually or as a collaborative process by the music driven siblings brings diversity to their thought provoking tunes. Salim's years as an experienced producer with his strong affinity for reggae music and skills as an electronic composer are the basis on which he builds the unique Madu sound. His productions intertwine with Aminah's soulful melodies, her experience over the years singing jazz, blues, folk and roots music, combine to create a dynamic sound. Think King Tubby meets Billie Holiday.
